THE M. H. S. RECORD.

Jas. T. Alderson, Editor-in-chief.

Robt W. Freeland, Circulation Mgr. & Asst. Ed.

Wm. T. Murry, Asst. Circulation Mgr.

Dick C. Hales, Advertisement Mgr.

Rex A. Hunicutt, Publisher & Business Mgr.

It seems that fishing with Trammel Nets is all the go with some of the young gentlemen of the M. H. S. Victor Young, N. Mayer and Wardell Lee went to the river to place a boat. When they had been there a short while they noticed a net stretched across the river, curiosity getting the best of their good sense; they began to examine it. While engaged in this foolish occupation a man came rambling down the bank and yelled at them.

Each one tells a different story but all agree that Wardell led the retreat and that Norcliffe was doing fine running considering the lightness of his head, and the heaviness of his feet. Victor Young bravely and courageously brought up the rear.

After having come to town for reinforcements they went back to annihilate their unknown foe.

As no one has seen the body, we suppose the long walk calmed the boys down.

The rod was applied with great force upon an old recipient—Lloyd Turner by name—on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Prof. G. B. Adams being the chastiser.

Eryant Jones, a fugitive of the Fifth Grade, received his full share of corporal punishment last week and while the licks of the chastiser were echoing through the corridors the girls of the Ninth Grade were murmuring "poor boy".

"The Good Timers" are thinking of changing the name of the club to "The Calumet." We still do not know whether the name was found on a hard-backet or in the dictionary, but we do know the meaning of the word Calumet, which is more than some of the members who voted to have it called this.

A disobedient young boy of grade two was chastised. The Record's correspondent was not allowed in the room and we were not able to learn the boy's name.

An editor of a paper announced that he would change the name of his paper to "The Fugitive," because the circulation manager had to flee for his life when he asked some people to subscribe. The Record we are thankful to say does not have to change its name to "The Fugitive"; for every one takes an interest in what the school is doing and willingly subscribes.

If the Puritans were called Roundheads because they cut their hair short: why is a boy who can't work his examples called a 'Blockhead'?

REMEMBER! The Contests at Little Rock in April. Malvern should muster a large crowd to yell for The M. H. S.

Some body will and must win; why not Malvern?

There will be a spelling contest held at the M. H. S. building at the end of the present session. All the grades of both departments will be represented and a handsome prize will be awarded to the best speller. The work will be taken from the spelling book now in use in the school until it is exhausted after which the dictionary will be used until the victory is won. This contest should create much interest with both patrons and pupils; as for the faculty, they have already given their support to the cause.

Mr. Ross P. Horrocks, the Business Manager of the State Contests writes, "Bring your banners, yells and pennants and come prepared for a good time." There will be several special prizes given."

The Ninth Grade is now struggling with Virgil's Aeneid. Some of the girls have been trying to make the verses rhyme, but have not made much in this line. Between Caesar and Virgil they will have a glorious time.

On the afternoon of March 24th, Mrs. Sempster chaperoned a crowd of girls and "one poor boy," down by the pond on a search for violets. Fences (barb wire) were climbed and legs were crossed in their ramblings. They found ferns and many violets.

It proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

EXAMS.

The no. enrolled in the Tenth Grade is three all of whom took the examinations. Only two passed but the one who failed only lacked a few points of passing.

The Ninth Grade has an enrollment of nine pupils. Four of the nine took the examinations and came forth victorious.

We have heard nothing as to how the Seventh & Eighth Grades fared, but we know Mr. Adams is having a hard time correcting the 1,000 papers of the pupils who took the exams.

The enrollment of No 8 is 30. Out of this 10, 35 were brave enough to attempt the examination from which fiery coals only 25 emerged, a little scorched, it is true, but on the whole well qualified to enter upon the final struggle for supremacy.

The seven who failed only fell by the way-side, and we feel confident that they too will soon revive and go on their way rejoicing, with the assurance of duty faithfully performed. The highest average was made by Karl Clay, 94.6.

The enrollment of Grade Five is 30 of which 29 took the examinations. The highest averages were:—Nat Hummickitt, 91.9. Irma Koefner, 90.3.

No. Four has an enrollment of fifty-nine scholars nearly all of whom took the examinations. A large part of this number were successful in the vast undertaking.

The scholars of Grade Three are the bravest little warriors to be found anywhere. Out of fifty-seven, there were forty-seven successful.

Thirty-eight pupils of the Second Grade are happy. They successfully passed the examinations and will be permitted to pass in to the next grade. The enrollment is sixty-three.

Some of the First Grade are gradually working their way to success in life and a happy marriage.

Out of the 133 pupils; twenty-one passed the first round on the ladder of renown and will take their seats in Grade Two next year.

AT SCHOOL, A WAY FROM HOME.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS.

I believe when we stopped in the last issue, we were about to eat dinner Great Caesar! let's change the subject, it's too tough.

The next day when I went into the school-room they gave me a seat where they could watch me all the time, I was so good. Now the delinquent list was read, my name led the list and was put in every time for the chores.

That evening they put me out on the campus with a 10ft. gun to watch "Hairy Dety." That night we had beer, hard biscuits, and coffee for supper.

After supper we went into the Study Hall, where an old bald-headed man presided. This personage was called "Daddy Doubles," by the boys. He sat down, and rose immediately with a few pines in the principal part of his anatomy. We had to go to bed at 9.30 and dream of sweet girls at Home Sweet Home.
